DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS, ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Volume IX.

FRANKFORT, KY., MAY 8, 1886.

Number 37.

Mr. W. S. Dehoney has purchased the interest of the late E. Whiteides in the furniture and undertaking business of Messrs. Whiteides & Staten and the style of the firm will hereafter be Staten & Dehoney. Mr. Dehoney will shortly close out his stock of dry goods and devote his entire time to his new business.

Mr. Jas. G. Greenup has purchased the interest of Mr. Anderson Gaines in the grocery establishment of Gaines & Kent, corner of Second and Shelby streets, and the style of the firm will hereafter be Kent & Greenup. The young gentlemen composing the firm are energetic business men and we wish them success.

There was a street rumor on Wednesday of an impending duel between Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., Mayor, and Major Lewis E. Harvie, growing out of some hot words passed between those gentlemen before a committee of the Senate on Tuesday night, and the Louisville papers announced Thursday that Major Harvie had asked Gen. Basil W. Duke to act as his second, as he intended to challenge Mr. Taylor. If Major Harvie had any such intention, he must have thought better of it when his passion cooled, as no challenge has passed.

Miss Lillian Spencer, whose place among the great emotional actresses of to-day, is firm and assured, will appear at the New Opera House on Wednesday, May 12th. She will produce Leander Richardson's version of the great dramatist, Sardou's, "Andrea," under the title of "Anselma," a play of the most vigorous character and beautiful in its construction. A superb company will support Miss Spencer on this her fourth annual tour, as a star, and everything is promised by the management to give perfection to the performances. Miss Spencer, it is said, has not yet had a role of such strength and force since her great performance of Cora, in "L'Article 47," or of such tender sympathy since her beautiful giving of Hazel Kirke.

Price—Parquette and Dress Circle 75 cents; Balcony 50; Gallery 25. Sale of seats begins at Barrett's News Stand Monday, May 10th, without extra charge.

A Coming Treat.

The most important event likely to take place shortly in this city is the production of the new opera, "Lena, in three acts, with full chorus and orchestra. The music is exceedingly beautiful and the plot very interesting. The following is the synopsis:

Karl Webber, a wealthy planter of South Carolina, sends across the ocean for his orphan granddaughter, Lena, whom he has never seen. On the voyage the vessel is wrecked and Lena falls into the sea and is left to perish, but her governess and companion, Amy, is saved in the life-boat. Amy, on arriving at Webber's home, imposes herself upon old Karl as his granddaughter. Years before Karl Webber and one his neighbors, named Warren, had made up a match between Warren's son Chester and Lena. Chester and Amy, however, upon meeting, have a mutual dislike for each other. Amy falls in love with Arthur Warren, Chester's cousin, who reciprocates her affection. Webber, however, insists upon the marriage with Chester and all arrangements are made for the ceremony to take place. On the night fixed for the wedding, however, Arthur closes his cousin down in a cavern, and pretends that he has drowned himself. On that same night Lena, who has been saved from the sea, appears at Webber's home and declares herself his granddaughter. He drives her forth in the night. She is rescued by Chester, who finds her in the woods, he having escaped from the cavern. They arrive at Webber's just as Arthur and Amy have been married. All is explained and every body is given and made happy.

Mr. George Hardy, of this city will deliver an address before the Blue Ribbon Temperance Club at the Court-house Tuesday evening. All are invited to attend.

W. C. T. U Notes.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in the chapel of the Christian Church Wednesday afternoon, May 12, at four o'clock, every member trying to be present and bring a friend or neighbor?

The meetings at the Christian Church have increased in interest and power this week, and a number of accessions to the church have been made. Rev. Mr. Cobb preaches tonight, to-morrow morning and night, and also during the greater part of next week. All enjoy listening to his plain and forcible presentations of the gospel.

From the "Union Signal" (Chicago), the brilliant and powerful organ of the W. C. T. U., we clip the following in Miss Frances E. Willard's "Ten Days in Kentucky."

At Frankfort our devoted band had a huge meeting in the Hall of Representatives in the interests of local option. A high license bill had been introduced and I made it my duty to speak to the chairman of the profound committee that I feel toward that subtlety device of the world, by which so many of the very elect have been deceived. Mrs. Runyan, the president of our W. C. T. U. at the capital, and Mrs. G. C. T. U. at the State Fair, and has had a ladies' school there for well over a generation. She is a strong, brave woman, greatly respected and beloved. Mrs. Capt. Hyde had worked up the details excellently. It is universally admitted that this Legislature drinks more than any preceding, and is probably still more legislation. The bill to outlaw gambling just passed, gives some hope of progressive action on the temperance petition so anxiously watched for by the W. C. T. U. and good people.

Very recently entertained at the capital, Miss Estelle Jackson, and her friend Mrs. J. C. Morton, welcomed us to their cultured hospitality; gave me to drink from chalice over a hundred years old, and procured for us in addition to their own delightful conversation, the pleasure of meeting Major John Williams, author of "The Modern Man," and Col. Johnston, former Secretary of State and editor of the Kentucky "Journal." Mrs. Morton is a charming writer, of whom I trust we may hear more anon, and both ladies were for temperance when it was not the order of the day in their own social circle.

A Friendly Letter.

5TH AVE. HOTEL, N. Y., Aug. 1, 1855.
Gentlemen.—Your remedy is certainly one of the greatest discoveries of the 19th century. For eradicating blood poison it has no equal. A friend who has been a great sufferer from that disease, contracted from a tick, by the use of Swift's Specific, cleanses his system entirely of that, and most painful rheumatism, so that his skin and tongue and breath are as pure as a child's without the least taint. He desires me to say this to you and to thank you with the sincerest of a grateful heart and soul, for your great public humanity so effective as to remedy for a disease hitherto regarded incurable. Let every one similarly afflicted take your remedy, and they surely will be well again. In his half, and to encourage others. I gladly write and sign this.

Very respectfully,
LA FAYETTE SKYES.

From Tennessee.

Judge R. S. Bradford, who was cured of his cancer, writes from his home, Tiptonville, Tenn., on the date of Aug. 8. "My cancer is entirely gone, leaving only a very little scar. There is a gentleman in this vicinity who was past going with rheumatism, who at my suggestion took S. S. He is now entirely cured, is active and able to attend to all kinds of business. There are a great many in this community using Swift's Specific, with much satisfaction and to their great relief."

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a longsufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it. In six months she had walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free Trial Bottles at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store.

PYAEMIA

The most virulent form of blood-poisoning. Less specially fatal, but not less certainly so, is the vibration of the blood of which the first symptom is Pimples, Skin Blisters, and Crusts. These are warning signals of Scrofulosis, a disease which should be lost in nothing Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is a safe and reliable medicine for the purification of the blood.

SCROFULA

Is a foul corruption in the blood that rots out the substance of life. Nothing will eradicate it from the system so prevent its transmission to offspring but Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is a reliable medicine for the purification of the blood of Merciful poison and the twin of Contagious Diseases. Impoverished blood is productive of

ANÆMIA

A wretched condition indicated by Pallid Skin, Fainter Pulse, Shortened Nerves, and Malnourishment. Its first symptoms are Weakness, languor, Loss of Nerve Force, and Mental Depression. It is a disease that is inevitable to insanity or death. Women frequently suffer from it. The only medicine that while purifying the blood, increases its vital quality, and invigorates the whole system, is FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MAY 8, 1866.

Major H. T. Stanton, formerly editor of the Yeoman, has written a novel, entitled "The Kents." The manuscript has just been completed and submitted to a publisher.

The new organ chamber of the Baptist Church has been completed and the organ moved into it, a vestibule is being built in front of the Church, the ceiling lights will be improved, the building painted inside and out and newly papered. When all this is done and the stained glass windows and new pews are put in the Church will be one of the handsomest in the city.

Mr. A. W. Lettich, late proprietor of the Meriwether Hotel, left Wednesday morning for Grayson Springs, where he will have charge of the hotel the coming season. He was accompanied by Mr. V. D. Sims, who has held the position of agent of the steamer Blue Wing in this city for several months. Mr. Sims will be the steward of the hotel, and it is safe to say that with two such competent and experienced gentlemen in charge the guests of the Grayson Springs Hotel will fare splendidly this summer.

Work on the new jail is progressing rapidly, and is being substantially put up. The walls are two feet three inches thick, the stones all being fastened together by iron dowels, and the windows are four and a half inches wide by three feet in height, and are guarded by an iron netting, the meshes of which will not admit of the passage of any large article between them to the prisoners confined within. The walls of one story of the jail proper are already completed and the second story well under way.

Mr. Jerry Corbett, an employee of the Water Company, while engaged in repairing a break in the service pipe at the depot Saturday afternoon, was badly hurt by the ferule of the service pipe blowing out of the main, the water striking him in the breast and face and filling his mouth and throat with dirt and gravel, a large quantity of which he swallowed before he could be gotten out of the small hole in which he was working. The stream from the opening went about fifty feet up into the air, and in its descent fell down one of the chimneys of Mr. Gabe Weltzel's residence, near by, carrying down large quantities of soot with it and flooding the floors of the rooms below.

The old fountain in the State House yard was playing Monday afternoon for the first time in nearly thirty years. Pipes were laid to it last summer from the new water mains, but the water was never turned on before. After a rest of more than a quarter of a century, the old structure seems in a fair way to be brought into active service again, which is due to the efforts of that modest but public spirited citizen, Col. Thos. B. Ford, to whom the city is mainly indebted for her Government building, and many other improvements of a public nature. The Water Company, at his solicitation, has agreed to furnish the water free during the session of the Legislature. The basin will have to be repaired before it can be used regularly.

Of the seven plans submitted to the Council and School Board for the new Public School Building, that of Mr. M. Q. Wilson, of Louisville, was selected as first best; that of Messrs. C. A. Curtis & Co. of Louisville, as third best; and that of Mr. W. S. Clark, of this city, as second best. After considerable discussion and postponing the matter from time to time, the Council finally, on Tuesday night, adopted the Wilson plan as the one for the new building, and ordered bids to be advertised for. The house is to be three stories high with cupola on top, to contain sixteen rooms and an exhibition hall, and is to cost about $22,500. When completed, it will be one of the handsomest school buildings in the State, and a great ornament to the city. The plans will be ready for bidders Tuesday.

The Sunday train commenced running again between this city and Louisville last Sunday.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will shortly give a Milk Maid's Tea, instead of their annual Strawbery Festival.

Aaron Smith, the Broadway street barber, left Thursday morning with his family for Kansas, where he will make his future home.

The ladies of the Southern Presbyterian Church will give a supper for the benefit of their Church on the evening of Thursday, May 20th.

There will be a meeting of the Waverly Club at the Club rooms this afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Mr. W. C. Herndon, special commissioner, sold on Monday the residence of Col. S. I. M. Major for $5,600 to Major L. C. Normian, Insurance Commissioner.

No other preparation so concentrates and combines the blood-purifying, vitalizing, enriching and invigorating qualities as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Quality should be considered in making comparisons.

Dr. W. I. Kelly, of Cincinnati, is at the Capital Hotel to-day, where he wishes to see all afflicted with any of the diseases which he makes a specialty of treating.

The Arctic is without rival.

Mr. Milton P. Craig, has sold his farm at Jones Station, this county, to Col. E. E. Hoge for $70 per acre. Mr. Craig will go to Colorado and engage in the cattle business.

Squire J. Dan Moore, who is at present one of the magistrates in the Benson district, is a candidate for re-election, and wants his friends to remember him at the August election.

Mr. S. M. Davidson, the independent candidate for Jailer, wishes his friends to remember that he is still in the race and will remain until the close of the polls on the first Monday in August.

Try the Arctic flour.

Mr. H. B. Bohannon, formerly of Woodford county, who married Miss Mary Todd, youngest daughter of the late Wm. M. Todd, of this city, died at his home near Independence, Missouri, April 22, after a protracted illness with consumption.

Capt. Ed. M. Drane has been appointed agent of the Steamer Blue Wing in this city, to succeed Mr. V. D. Sims. We understand that the owners of this popular craft are thinking of putting another boat into this trade, as their business is increasing rapidly.

There was a good sized crowd in town Monday to attend County Court, and a number of cattle were on the market, but prices were low. Col. D. A. Peters, Auctioneer, reports that horses sold from $20 to $127; a second hand buggy, $20; new buggy, $65; spring wagons, $25 and $30.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to destroy the residence of Mr. John W. Gault, in South Frankfort, by fire. An out house was set fire to and would have soon communicated the flames to the main building, but the fire was discovered by Mr. J. Pleckett Woodson, who lives next door, in time to put it out before much damage was done.

Miss Lillian Spencer, who is to appear in "Anselm" at the New Opera House on Wednesday evening next, May 12th, will have the support of an admirable company. The star herself has a very wide and deservedly high reputation as an emotional actress, and the opportunities for the display of wide and varied ability. The New Letter (N. Y.) thus spoke of the play recently: "The play...which has been very ably done. English by that brilliant writer, Mr. Leander Richardson, made a distinct hit."

A GALA DAY FOR ALL. Great Procession of the Barnum and London Shows.

The tremendous public parade of the United P. T. Barnum and great London shows will take place on Saturday, May 22d, and it is safe to say the streets will be thronged with all classes of people to see it. At no time in the history of the world was there ever so many extraordinary objects publicly exposed as those that will be seen in this truly grand procession. The immense number of chariots, cages, and open dens will stretch over a mile in length, and there will be from 16 to 20 open dens of wild animals with a keeper in each, a heard of racing camels, sacred camels, 35 elegant carved golden chariots, cages of birds, beasts, reptiles, amphibious creatures, mammals, and pythons, 500 real Norman draught horses—a whole show of themselves—numerous tiny ponies, rare and elegant trained horses, zebras in harness, old mother in shoe chariot with her wild boys escaping therefrom, peacock and dragon chariots, steam musical chariots, grand orchestrions, mechanical automatons, animals led in lead, such as guanacos, llamas, deer, buffalo, sacred cattle, Burmese animals, cheetahs, etc. There will also be knights in silver armor, court ladies in costly robes, male and female jockeys and hippodrome riders, representatives of foreign courts and countries arrayed in the most costly and expensive costumes of silk, satin and velvet, encrusted in gold and mounted upon richly caparisoned horses. There will be Roman racing chariots, drawn by four horses abreast, thoroughbred racers, comical and grotesque features, several bands of music, with drum-majors, etc., and fourteen other kinds of music, Jubilee singers, brass military bands, etc., a heard of elephants harnessed to various chariots, some 26 feet high, and many other rare and enormously costly objects never seen before, the whole costing $1,500,000.

It will be really a most wonderful sight, one that no one should miss, particularly as in the fall these shows visit Europe, to be absent some years. Have given Tongaline a trial in two cases of neuralgia—one a lady aged sixty-four, whose eyes gave permanent relief; the other a lady aged forty; neither had any return.

The alarm of fire Wednesday night was occasioned by a slight blaze in the stable of Messrs. Sower & Ahler, in the Baltzley alley. The fire department extinguished it in a jiffy, with a stream from the fire hydrant at the Farmers Bank corner.

Says he probably believes he would have died, if it had not for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at five cents a bottle by Jos. Letcompte. 6

ROUNDABOUT--Supplement.

FRANKFORT, KY., MAY 8, 1886.

The remains of Mr. John Wintersmith, of Louisville, were brought to this city Thursday morning and interred in the cemetery, the funeral taking place at the Episcopal Church. This is the third member of the family which has died within the last six months.

Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., received the following letter from Col. John Mason Brown, one of the first trustees of the Public School in this city, in reply to one written him in regard to the propriety of erecting two school buildings in this city:

LOUISVILLE, KY., April 20th, 1886.

E. H. Taylor, Jr., Frankfort, Ky.:

My Dear Sir— I was absent from the city in Washington last week on business connected with the contest between the gas companies of the city. Your reason if it was not until yesterday that I read your letter, written the 14th inst. The time for answering it with my effect had already passed, and I greatly regret that anything should have interfered with my being useful in any possible way to the effort which you and other public spirited and intelligent citizens are making for the best interests of Frankfort's public schools. Your position seems to me to be a just one of the fund or dividing that schools is unquestionably the best. This whole matter was anxiously considered and gone over at the time that the school enterprise was entered into, and every consideration of economy and efficiency of the school, the best interests of discipline and progress, and the great necessity of the limited funds at hand pointed to the same conclusion, with that the school property in South Frankfort should be made the location of the entire public school system of the town. I do sincerely hope that this well matured conclusion will not be departed from.

I believe a man never knows until he has been removed for some years from the scene of his boyhood, how really strong N.Y.'s affection for the native place. N.Y. thinks that Frankfort is in her interests to me and it can in any way at all contribute to anything that tends to the improvement or progress, or good name of our dear old town it will always be my happiness to do it. Besides this, the school system of Frankfort is a thing in which I take a great personal pride. It is the one thing that I can live without as having been largely developed through my advocacy.

Wishing you every success,
Yours truly,

JOHN MASON BROWN.

Bald Knob.

We proudly boast of having the largest inland subscription school in the State.

All intelligent citizens throughout Frankfort are exulting over the triumph of Prof. T. W. Hunter for Superintendent of Schools.

Crowds after crowds were unable to obtain admittance to the Grand Union Sunday-school last Sunday. Those desiring seats should come early.

A trained choir with organ, flute and clarinet, will discourse celestial music to saint and sinner every Sunday evening at three o'clock.

Rev. Bro. Graves, D. D., preached to an enlightened audience one of his select sermons on "what man should do to save his soul." It had the desired effect.

Mrs. Eliza Hamilton of Frankfort, is highly appreciated as an educator of merit. Her present school at Eden is in a promising condition. She deserves this special paragraph.

The Scooe Bros., of the Scooe saw mills, have invented a simple substitute for blacksmith's bellows, for which they have applied for a patent. They are ingenious and inventive.

Mr. Noel Lee, our talented reporter, has recent lucrative offers made him. He will meet to-day with the Association of Teachers at Frankfort.

Maj. Eli McDaniel, our Republican candidate for Jailer, is one of the most liberal politicians in the State. The Major, like his esteemed competitor, Mr. Williams, will compromise any narrow political tenet on broad and liberal terms.

Dr. J. O. Robinson, a distinguished scientist scholar and physician has been solicited to render a few of his choice selections in elocution before the Teachers' Association to-day. The Dr. by his extensive and successful practice, is termed "the pride of the Knob."

The Box Bro's. are threatening to remove their excellent Champion saw-mill for want of logs. These gentlemen, during their stay here, have won for themselves the love and esteem of all who know them. Tom is a genial social prince.

Col. Young, our esteemed humorist, was setting in the shade holding his rod at arm's length as if waiting for a bite. A part of the line slept in the shallow stream, while the rest lay in its blotted water, near the dry rockwood. He had cast his hook beyond the stream and didn't see it. Of course no practical angler can catch fish without "the line."

Col. Thomas B. Ford, of Frankfort, will be extremely solicited by this and adjacent counties to accept the nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. All enlightened school men throughout the State who know or have heard of the meritorious worth of this meek prince and ever zealous father of popular education will readily insist upon the blind and bridled masses to rally to the front and secure this priceless treasure for the people.

Benson.

News scarce.

Col. Dave Moore has sold his fine saddle and harness mare, Sally Stute to Mr. Thaddeus McAndrew, Price private.

Born.—To James Moore and wife, a son—W. H. Sneed.

L. P. Hallette has purchased the Rupe farm of Mrs. J. W. Rupe, widow of Jno. W. Rupe, deceased.

A large concourse of people attended the funeral of A. J. Hulotte, sr., at North Benson Church last Sunday.

Wool! Wool seems to be the leading trade in our village. L. P. Hullette is buying.

Baby market booming. A premium on the prettiest one.

Col. George Moore wants to know about that account. George, it is only $13.10 in shoes, dresses, &c.

LITTLE BETTIE.

Bryant Ridge.

The prospect for a new crop of tobacco is very flattering one in this neighborhood.

Dr. O. H. Reynolds passed through this neighborhood this week on a visit to his many patients.

Farmers are busily engaged in planting corn.

Mr. Lewis Lee of Flat Creek, has rented, and will soon take in charge, the depot at Hatton.

Mr. George Mitchell says he sympathizes much with Mr. Warren Pulliam over his scare, for he was very much alarmed on finding a dead snake once himself.

Willie Gains and Bob Semmons said they were to run Pulliam's ball instead of bachelor's hat.

There was a can of oil found at the spring known as the Black Lick spring, which the owner can get by calling at the spring my time on two days' notice (Whose it is, Bourl).

Our little writer, we admit she is neat, and is thought by some (oh, Dowdy) how sweet.

Mr. Lewis Cook makes a flying trip every day to the Stoney Creek toll gate to see Mr. M. Moore.

Sunday-school every Sunday evening at Bald Knob school-house, at three o'clock. Boys, take the girls.

Harper's Ferry.

Misses Maggie and Lee Rozel were the guests of Misses Lucia and Ida Sudduth Saturday and Sunday.

Born.—On Wednesday, April 21st, to Mr. Garrett Sudduth and wife, a daughter.

Sunday-school at Benson Church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend.

Died.—At his home near Hatton, April 21st, 1886, Mr. Henry Young, of Frankfort. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

Weep not, dear friends, for your loved one. Remember that your loss is his eternal gain. He was too precious for earth. His task is finished. His work is done and he has gone to reap his golden reward on that bright and beautiful shore and rest in that calm and peaceful home prepared for him by a loving Savior and join the loved ones gone before.

U. Guess.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Mrs. South Trimble has been quite sick.

Mr. G. Steedman was up last week calling. Thanks to H. J. B. Steedman for one year's subscription.

Mr. Henry Church, of Kansas City, Missouri, is visiting his parents below Stedmanville.

Miss Annie South, of Frankfort, and Miss Annie Trimble, of Mt. Sterling, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Eliza Trimble.

The charming little belle of Bridgeview, near Penk's Mill, Miss Laura Hoekersmith, is visiting Miss — Brattin near White Sulphur.

"It is whispered that a hotel will soon be started at Woodlake. "Competition is the life of trade," says the proprietor of the Thomas House.

Over LeCompte, our young magnetie Dr. in company with his father and Dr. Gilman, went to Georgetown last Monday, to give an exhibition of his magnetic power. They returned last Wednesday.

Mr. S. T. Saure, of Frankfort, met with an accident on his here last Monday by falling off a stone truck while helping to load a wagon. It was thought that he was dead, but he soon recovered and found that he was only slightly injured.

Jeff's Station.

It has been sometime since we have seen anything in your newsy little paper of our progressive community.

J. T.'s Station is thoroughly alive, the natural consequence of having two such enterprising business men established here as Messrs. James Shaw and O. R. Cratcher. They have just completed an extensive warehouse, and are rapidly filling it with the latest and most improved agricultural implements and all kinds of the best seed. That, with the long established and well known grocery and dry goods house of L. A. Owen, renders this community quite independent.

Miss Sophia Finch, of Missouri, will spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Owen.

Miss Flora Lindsey, of Indiana, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. L. South, returned home on Wednesday.

Mr. Robert Cratcher, who has been attending Commercial College in Louisville, returned home on Tuesday, very seriously ill.

Mr. L. A. Trumbo left for Texas on Saturday. The prevailing opinion is that he will return with a valuable addition to our society in the person of his bride. When he left he thought he would be home to see the circus and the last of the Legislature.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Cooling Club met on the 29th at the residence of Mrs. A. G. Botts. There will be full attendance, about forty persons being present. The supper was a great success.

The semi-monthly meeting of the Cooling Club met on the 29th at the residence of Mrs. A. G. Botts. There will be full attendance, about forty persons being present. The supper was a great success.

The wheat outlook is encouraging.

Fishing parties are now in the ascendency. The apple and cherry blossom header used.

Mr. C. B. Russell (Charlie) left last Monday for Chicago, where he will engage in business. May success crown his efforts.

Sleep shivering seems now to be occupying the attention of the farmers most.

Mrs. John Angrave rep. sets that he bought a few days ago from Mr. R. S. Kinghead ten spring laubs at $4 per head.

Messrs. Wade & Towles have been awarded the construction of the remaining mile and $\frac{1}{4}$ of the Bridgeport and Benson pike.

Mrs. Fannie Parment, who has been very sick during the past three months and a half, we are glad to announce, is convalescing.

Mrs. Rebecca Crockett and daughter Mrs. Anna Bell, have been on the sick list a week or two.

Mrs. Carrie Robinson has returned home from a visit to her brother, Mr. R. H. Hawkins, Lexington.

Farm hands and teams seem to be rather more scarce than usual this season.

Miss Little Russell, who has been on the sick list recently, is able to assume her duties as teacher again.

Mr. R. H. Parrent, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, visited relatives in this vicinity last week.

Since the opening of spring a vast deal of improvement has been the consequence, at least so far as the election is concerned.

We again appeal to the management for a telephonc connection. No place of its size, perhaps, has more need of it than this.

Mrs. Achia Hackley, of Gratzburg, visited friends in this town last Sunday.

Notwithstanding the busy season, this court last Monday.

Mr. Jacob Williams, who has had the chills recently.

Pea Ridge

Hot and dry.

Sheep shearing commenced.

Mr. Joe Tracy has the boss calf.

Miss Laura Graves, of Shelby, is visiting Mrs. W. Tracy.

Mr. Will Tracy has rented, and is cultivating, part of the Stephens farm on Shelby pike.

Mr. Doc Tracy, of Anderson county, visited relatives in this village last Saturday and Sunday.

The Sunday-school here is a success, judging from the interest taken in it by the people, and the large and regular attendance since its organization.

On reading Dick Johnson's adventure with foot pads, a citizen here remarked Dick ought to carry his weapon in his hand while traveling to Leestown at night.

Bridgeport, don't fail us. We missed you last week. If you knew the number who, searching for the Bridgeport column, found only disappointment, you would feel sorry for them.

Messrs. Shanks & Jamerson, the contractors who completed the reservoir, have sent for Mr. John Burke to take charge of a division of their works in Cincinnati, where they have a $50,000 contract for street construction. Mr. B. is here Monday evening.

An Elmira man has patented a flying machine—Boston Globe.

This announcement was received with delight by the people here, for judging the future by the past, in the matter of closing roads, a flying machine will be a necessity for those who wish to travel.

The small boy carried a pup to a Frankfort merchant the other day as a present. The F. M. generously gave the little fellow a quarter, which so delighted him, and having another pup ordered he decided to carry the second one to town, for which he got the sum of five cents, after having to state that he was doing a strictly spot cash business.

Our poet went to work the other day and ground out the following beautiful Spring poem:

Spring, Spring, beautiful Spring,
I am sure that hot weather's a very good thing.

And I wish that—

But we all know what he wished for, and sincerely hope he got it.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times symptoms of indigestion, flatulence, etc. attend.

Diaphoresis, producing a very disagreeable feeling, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, The Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by Hughes & Chiles.

In front of sorts, with headache, stomach disorder, torpid liver, pain in back or side, constipation, etc., neglect may be fatal. One dose of Strong's Sanative Piles will give relief.

A few doses restore to new health and vigor.
